

Dawn is currently the Performing Arts Supervisor for Oak Lawn Park District's IPRA Award Winning Community Theatre program where she produces, directs, choreographs and also oversees their Dance program. She also works with the Beverly Theatre Guild (BTG) which is currently the oldest running Community Theatre in Chicago. She has connections with Drama Group in Chicago Heights, Spotlight Arts Collective in Frankfort as well as 3KG and 115 Bourbon Street in Merrionette Park where she directed their first ever musical in 2019. Over the past 20 years she has worked on several High School productions on the Southside of Chicago and was the tap choreographer for IHSA's All State production of Big Fish. When she is not busy creating art, she enjoys spending time with her supportive husband and amazing daughter who also shares a love for the arts.
